

THE TIMES OF INDIA, NEW DELHI
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2013

Haven for book lovers

The book week organised at Cambridge School, Indirapuram from November 11-16 saw a plethora of literary and co-curricular activities for students of all ages. Senior classes indulged in activities like onomatopoeia style of writing, giving a different ending to a story, designing book cover etc. while juniors enjoyed colouring and counting activities and a movie screening. The highlight of the show was a story telling session by the author Surekha Panandikar.

An author meet was also organised on November 20 as a part of the Bookaroo Children's Literature Festival's Outreach Programme - Bookaroo in the city and the school's ISA project - 'Super Sleuths- Popular detectives in English fiction'. The guest author Wendy Cooling, head of Children's Book Foundation and recipient of an MBE (Member of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire) had a lively session with the students of classes IX & X. She discussed the reading habits of young adults and focused on the topics 'Books to keep you hooked' and 'What makes the ideal detective'. The interactive and activity based programme proved to be inspiring for all the participants.

