Transporting the viewers to a magical land of music

Cambridge School, Indirapuram presented 'Ananda Dhara', a musical extravaganza. The event was attended by the parents and members of the Managing Committee. The welcome speech was followed by Rabindranath Tagore's dance drama 'Chandalika'. The school review was presented by the head boy and the head girl. The students were honoured with full and half colour badges for their efforts in organising various events of the school. School principal Harendra Chakhaiyar stressed that the institution was a school of the students, by the students and for the students. The members of the school band enthralled the audience with a group song, followed by Bengali folk music and a Durga Stuti converting it into rock music. The programme ended with a vote of thanks.
