

THE TIMES OF INDIA

STUDENT EDITION

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 2016

Presenting opinions confidently

Cambridge School, Srinivaspuri held the Annual Inter-School Hindi Debate Competition on November 18 to promote and encourage public speaking skills in students. The topic of the event was Parivaar aur parampara ki bhool bhulaiya mein bhartiya vyakti ke liye apni pehchan khojna kathin ho jata hai. School principal Aparna Seebaluck welcomed the guests and participating schools. Chief guest Mr Dibang, senior journalist with a leading television news channel, commended the efforts of the participants. More than 20 renowned schools of Delhi-NCR displayed their skills. The overall winner of the event was Cambridge School, Indirapuram with Riya Goel bagging the Best Speaker prize while Dhvani

Tekchandani of Blue Bells International School was adjudged the Best Interjector.