

Wednesday | December 14, 2016

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Showcasing technical flair

Cambridge School, Srini-vaspuri hosted the Inter-School Computer Competition 'Techyard 2016'. The initiative aimed at encouraging the learners to broaden their perspective and test their flair for excellence in the field of technology. Elite schools of Delhi/NCR competed with the best computer geeks in the city. School principal Aparna Seebaluck felicitated the guests and the young enthusiasts. With events ranging from Mindspark, Techritory, Hyper-design and Word Wars, the participants exhibited rare skills in delivery. Chief guest Dr Subir Saha, HOD, Mechanical Engineering, IIT Delhi emphasised on employable education and encouraged students to develop scientific temperament. The overall trophy was won by Cambridge School, Indirapuram.