

CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL, INDIRAPURAM HOLDS CAMUN 2015

Cambridge School, Indirapuram, hosted a three-day Model United Nations Conference - CAMUN 2015 - which saw the participation of almost 300 students from Dehi and NCR schools. The chief guests for the opening and closing ceremonies were Pankaj Pachauri, a veteran journalist, and Richa Anirudh, a prime time news anchor with IBN7, respectively. There were six committees in the conference, namely, Security Council, AIPPM, General Assembly, Unesco, Ecosoc and FIFA. The event was declared open by Secretary General Ankita Sabharwal, a law student from IP University, and was declared closed after the felicitation ceremony.

Prizes were given for Best Delegate, High Commendation, Special Mention, Verbal Mention and Best Position Paper. The Best Delegation award was bagged by Cambridge School, Noida.