Book week at Cambridge, Indirapuram

Cambridge School, Indirapuram, celebrated an interesting literary fiesta—Book Week. The week offered multiple intra- and inter-school activities to tease the imaginary and scholastic skills of the children spanning Nursery to Class XII. Students ventured into the enchanting literary world as they explored challenging topics, part of the various activities organized during the week. The week-long programme culminated with an inter-school recitation competition—Poetic Raga—which saw participation from 21 schools. The judges for the event were Beena Singh, Jasvinder and Dr Anusree Sarkar. The overall trophy was bagged by Presidium School, Indirapuram.
