

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Tuesday, November 17, 2015

Cambridge School, Indirapuram

The school organised a special assembly to extend their greetings to the teachers, students and support staff. As part of the Community Service Programme, the students of class-XII gifted blankets to the support staff while those of class-VI gifted items which they had made during their Value Education period. The staff members also donated gifts to the underprivileged. Both students and staff lived up to the school motto 'We Learn to Serve'.