

hindustantimes

Tuesday, 22 December, 2015

LITERATURE FESTIVAL

NEW DELHI: Cambridge School, Indirapuram, hosted an interactive and activity-based programme as part of the Bookaroo Children's Literature Festival's Outreach Programme - Bookaroo in the City. Author Meghna Singhee had a session titled 'How to Plot a Murder' with Class 6 students, based on her new book, 'The Case Files of PI Pojo - the Killing of Mr. Heathcote'. During the session, the students played memory games of the crime scene set up by the author, and learnt how to take and preserve finger prints. Students also enacted excerpts from the book. Children also shared their experiences with the author. HTC