

Dance Day

The primary section of Cambridge School, Indirapuram, celebrated the International Dance

Day on 29 April 29. Students of Classes III to V presented dances of Korea, Malaysia, South Africa, the US, Mexico, Spain and Egypt as part of the International School Project ~ Impressions and Expressions. The students of Class I and II took part in a fancy dress parade while the children of Prep and Nursery waved flags and festoons to add to the spirit of the celebrations.

Investiture ceremony

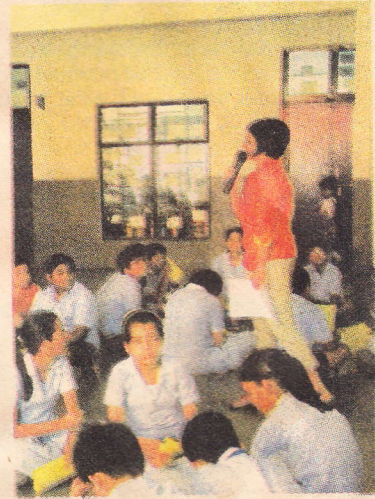

Cambridge School, Indirapuram, held its Investiture Ceremony on 3 May. The prefects, in their oath, pledged solidarity, dedication and sincerity towards their duties. Badges were bestowed on the members of the Prefectorial Board by chief guest J N Choudhury, Director General, National Security Guard, whose address conveyed a message of humility, service and willingness to excel.

Author meet

Cambridge School, Indirapuram, organised an Author Meet on 7 May. On this occasion, author Shweta Taneja conducted a workshop The Ghost Detective. Her debut novel The Ghost Hunters of Kurseong has revived the mystery genre in children's literature in India. Her graphic novels include Krishna and Defender of Dharma and The Skull Rosary, which was nominated for the Best Writer's section in the Comic Con Awards 2013. Currently, she's working on a thriller series about a female tantric detective based in Delhi.
